

Model Pledge To Be Chosen

• PHI SIGMA KAPPA fraternity will sponsor its annual Miss Model Pledge Contest this Saturday night at their fraternity house, 1734 New Hampshire ave.

Every sorority enters three candidates. Miss Model Pledge will be selected from the 33 candidates entered by 11 sororities. They will be judged by three judges: a representative from the Power Modeling School, a University dean and either Congressman Gallagher of N. J. or Congressman Cook of Ohio.

Hatchet Staff

• ALL HATCHET MEMBERS are required to attend a meeting today at 12:30 to plan the HATCHET Christmas party to be held one week from today. Everyone come to draw names for staff Christmas presents. Bring your wallets—it will cost $1.00 per person.

During individual interviews, each girl will be judged on looks (40%), poise and personality (40%) and activities and special talents (20%).

Messiah Chorus

• THE MESSIAH WILL be presented Monday, Dec. 14 at 8:30 pm. The University chorus, under the direction of Dr. Robert Harmon, will present the beautiful Handel choral work. The chorus will be assisted by the Singing Sergeants of the U.S. Air Force. This is part of the Colonial Holiday Season program.

Phi Sigma Kappa pledges plan to form a cavalcade to pick up the girls and escort them to the fraternity house, said Tom Edmonston, pledge president.

The 27 Phi Sig pledges will be supplemented by six elected actives to provide each girl with an escort, said William Carter, pledge vice-president. Funds for the event were raised primarily by a raffle of a case of Old Grand Dad bourbon. Winner of the bourbon will be drawn Thursday night and announced Saturday night.

Clues Yield Griffin Little Hope In 'Trial'

by Irene Cunin

• THE STUDENT COUNCIL—Student Bar Association Mock Trial of a fictitious University student, Baxter Griffin, will take place tomorrow evening at 8:30 in Government 1.

Griffin, played by Bill Bedford, will plead not guilty to a charge of first degree murder. The Law School student attorneys who are defending Griffin are Alan Hutchison, senior counsel and Victor Agmata, co-counsel.

Attorneys for the prosecution are Paul Rudman, senior counsel and Stan Lipnick, co-counsel.

The crime, according to police, was committed at 5 pm, Oct. 31 in the victim's apartment in the 2100 block of H st. n.w. Three persons witnessed the shooting. They were George Kennedy, who shared the apartment with Hunter; Lola Stewart, Hunter's fiancée and Gertrude Miller, a friend.

Their roles will be filled by Ray Link, Susan Braun and Cookie Fischgrund, respectively. The witnesses have been briefed on their testimonies by the attorneys.

The case was re-written for the attorneys from Case 47 in the Trial Practice Court Manual. John

AEPHI Places First In The 'Goat Show'

• ALPHA EPSILON PHI'S skit, "If You Were There," copped first place at the annual Junior Panhellenic Goat Show Friday night in Lisner auditorium.

Second prize went to Kappa Kappa Gamma for their pledge class production of "If International Affairs Went to the Dogs." There was a tie for third place. Both Delta Gamma, for "If Not Shakespeare," and Chi Omega, for "The East Point Story" were awarded third place prizes.

Judging the presentations were John C. Cross, Director of Drama at Montgomery Junior College; Robert Block, musical director for the University production of "Damn Yankees" and Mrs. Donald C. Kline, senior advisor to Mortar Board.

Professor Richard Walton Stephens, associate professor of sociology and anthropology, kept the audience in a merry mood between the skits with his humorous observations and remarks.

The winning skit warned students of the fallacies lurking in their history text books. For example, one learned that Waterloo was not a battle Napoleon fought, but actually Waterloo was a bewitching woman who diverted the attention of the French general from his wars.

WRGW Classes

• WRGW ANNOUNCES THAT classes in radio procedure will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 3:00 in studio F of Lisner auditorium. All those interested in any phase of radio announcing are urged to attend.

While the audience waited for the judges' results, Joyce Ormsby, vice-president of the Panhellenic council, announced the results of the annual poster contest for advertising the Goat Show. Zeta Tau Alpha was the winner of the award. The contest was judged by Mr. Mason, the University librarian and curator of art.

Miss Ormsby also introduced Dr. Robert Croft, of the Council of District Churches, who accepted the canned foods which were collected on behalf of his organization and which were part of the admission to the show.

Debaters Take First; Win Two Trophies In Dixie Tournament

by Roger Stuart II

• UNIVERSITY DEBATE DAVE Aaronson and Al Capp avenged a first round loss to William and Mary college, coming back to beat them in the final and took first place in the Dixie Classic Invitational Debate Tournament last Saturday at Wake Forest.

As the number one affirmative team at the tournament, the University debaters topped 12 other teams with a four win, three loss record.

The negative counterparts, Bill Stuart and Bill Daly won five rounds and lost two to capture fourth place among the 13 negative teams represented.

The two teams won second place in the composite rankings of the 26 teams in competition. William and Mary took first place in the composite scoring with an overall record of 11 wins and three losses, all of them on the affirmative side of the question.

For the second tournament in a row, the University debaters took first place rating in total speakers' points. Aaronson, Capp and Daly were ranked among the top 12 speakers at the tournament. Three weeks ago these same University teams took the top spot in speaker points at the St. Joseph's tournament in Philadelphia, but failed to win the tournament.

Aaronson and Capp with their four wins and three losses went into the final against the undefeated William and Mary negative and captured the decision of the judges on a four to three ballot.

On their way to victory both University teams met and defeated teams from Harvard and Duke Universities and from Middlebury College. The Aaronson and Capp combination also defeated South Carolina. Their defeats were to William and Mary in the first round and to Navy and Richmond in the last two.

Stuart and Daly had victories over West Indies and Navy and lost to Ohio State and William and Mary.

William and Mary was the same school that suffered a loss in the championship round last year at the Georgetown Invitational tournament to Stuart and Daly when they retired the tournament trophy.

Novice Team Comes Close

• UNIVERSITY NOVICE debaters copped second place honors last Saturday at the Temple Novice Invitational Tournament in Philadelphia.

The University debaters with a two team total of seven wins and one loss were second only to the University of Pennsylvania with both their negative and affirmative teams going undefeated. Sixty-two teams were represented at the tournament.

The University's negative team of Stan Remsberg and Bob Alshire went undefeated against Ursinus College, Lehigh, Temple and Princeton.

The affirmative team of Mollie Harper and Sue Carter scored victories over Rutgers, Maryland and Rosemont College before they bowed to tournament champion Pennsylvania.

Spring Registration To Introduce IBM

• AN IBM SYSTEM will be used in registration for the first time in January.

"The new system will be inaugurated in January after a year's planning," Mr. Frederick Houser, the University registrar said, and it should eliminate some of the paper work connected with registration.

Certain Difficulties

"However, as in any new system, unforeseen difficulties will arise and the students' cooperation and patience will help us solve the problem," he continued.

Registration days will be Tuesday and Wednesday, Jan. 26 and 27 from 11 am to 8 pm for Graduate Students in Engineering. For all other students, the Registration times will be Jan. 28 and 29 from 10 am to 8 pm and Saturday, Jan. 30 from 10 am to 1 pm.

Law, Graduate council and Engineering students will secure registration packets in the office of the respective deans. As in the past, all other students will come to the Registrar's office where they will secure their packet of IBM cards which will replace the forms previously issued. Some of the cards will be pre-punched and the student will have to fill in the required information.

Each student has been assigned a permanent student number. The number will not change and will always be kept in the permanent file in the Registrar's office.

After the student has gotten his packet and filled the cards out, the system of obtaining the adviser's departmental and dean's approval will remain the same. However, instead of "permit to enter class" cards being left at each department, the student will hand them all in when he goes to pay his bill.

Mr. Houser stressed the importance of a student registering on time. "If a student doesn't complete registration by 1 am Jan. 30 he no longer reserves his spot in a class. The department has a right to give his place to a completely registered student."

Don't Be Late

Also, students registering late should expect to encounter difficulties, since faculty and administrative offices will not be set up for registration. It is very possible that students may not get the professors or classes that they want.

"More detailed instructions will be issued with the packets and copies of the IBM cards will be printed in the HATCHET some time in January," Mr. Houser said.

Forty-Four Winners Enter Speech Finals

SEVENTY-THREE students participated in the first Intramural Speech contest held Dec. 1 and 2.

Winners of these preliminary matches will compete in the finals to be held Dec. 15.

Preliminaries were held in men's informative speaking, women's prose reading, men's prose reading and extemporaneous speaking. The finals will also include after-dinner speaking and women's informative speaking.

Winners in each of the men's and women's divisions of each event will be invited to represent the University in the Maryland-Washington Forensic Conference Tournament, Mar. 26, 1960.

Medals will be awarded to the first place winners in each event. Certificates will be awarded to the second, third, fourth and fifth place winners. Trophies will be awarded to the organization whose membership accumulates the highest total points in each division. These will be presented at the Annual May Day celebration.

Floor Show

A NIGHT CLUB atmosphere with "local talent" is the theme of the Student Council Floor Show Dance to be held Dec. 11 from 9-12 pm.

"We hope this new approach to the Student Council's dances," said Gayle Cook, activities director of the Council, "will increase all-university enthusiasm. We are counting on the success of this dance to create more student interest not only in G.W. itself, but also in its governing body."

According to Miss Cook, two sororities and members of Tassels have been invited to hostess at the dance. The sororities will be Chi Omega and Delta Gamma.

In addition to the local talent chosen from the student body, a local combo will entertain at the dance. An M.C., to be picked in a preliminary tryout, will add to the atmosphere.

CCP Makes Appointments

THE COLONIAL CAMPUS Party made committee appointments Friday at its meeting.

Charles King was appointed chairman of the platform committee. Members of his committee are Harry Jones, Aaron Knott, Penny Reid and Scott Williamson. The main job of the committee is to construct the party platform for the spring convention.

Publicity committee chairman is Pat Meechem, with vice chairman Alan May, and members Penny Kramer, Ed Orem and Charles May assisting him.

The membership committee is Bob Nichols, chairman, with Steve Harris, Cameron Peppitt, Ben Finkel and Henry Frain. A membership drive with a minimum of 150 members is the chief responsibility of this committee.

A committee to revise and clarify the constitution was set up with Al Capp as chairman and committee members Charles Landon, Elizabeth Reid, Dave Aaronson and Mary Weddle.

The next meeting of the Colonial Campus Party will be held at 1 pm this Friday, Dec. 11, in Government 101. Cherry Tree pictures will be taken.

All filter cigarettes are divided into two parts, and...

"Weni, widi, Winston!" Thus did Caesar (a notoriously poor speller) hail the discovery of Filter-Blend—light, mild tobaccos specially selected and specially processed for filter smoking.

He knew that a pure white filter alone is not enough. To be a complete filter cigarette, it must have Filter-Blend up front. And only Winston's got it!

That's why Caesar would never accept another brand even when it was offered gratis. In fact, history tells us he'd glower at the extended pack and sneer, "Et tu, Brute?"

In a stirring peroration to his legions, Caesar put it this way: "For the Numeral I filter cigarette—for the best-tasting filter cigarette—for the noblest filter cigarette of all—smoke Winston!"

"Winston tastes good like a cigarette should!"

P.S. to bachelors, If you're lucky enough to find a gal who'll keep you in Winstons, Caesar!

"Even a worm when trod

"MUSIC HAS CHARMS"

The 17th Century playwright, William Congreve, was the first to set down this classic metaphor concerning the powers of sound and rhythm. You'll find the whole quote in "The Mourning Bride", Act I, Sc. 1:

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast,
To soften rocks, or bend a knotted oak."

"RHYME OR REASON"

Edmund Spenser, 16th Century poet, expected a pension. He didn't get it. So he wrote this rhyme:
"I was promised on a time/To have reason for my rhyme;/From that time unto this season,
I received not rhyme nor reason."

SC Names Hi-Ball, 'Holiday' Chairmen

• RATIFICATION OF THE appointment by Council President Tim Mead of Tom Wagner and Harvey Wertlieb as Holiday Season co-chairmen was granted by the Student Council in its meeting last Wednesday night.

President Mead explained that he had taken the liberty of making the appointments because of the shortage of time and the importance of getting the plans ready for the Holiday Season activities. The Council had left petitioning open indefinitely, in an attempt to attract more petitioners, and thereby left it up to President Mead to terminate petitioning when he saw fit.

In other action concerning co-chairmen, Joe Iseman was named to replace Steve Kemp as a Hi-Ball co-chairman. Mr. Kemp has dropped out of school, thus necessitating the change.

In committee reports, the Council learned from Vice-President, John Prokop, that progress on the Student Directory is slow but apparently steady. He reported that one of the administrators interviewed concerning the directory was in favor of the idea, but was opposed to the idea that it be sold rather than free. Cookie Fischgrund, representing the Mock-Trial committee, reported that it will be held Wednesday, Dec. 9, whereupon the Council decided that it would attend the trial instead of its regular meeting.

A short debate ensued as to whether or not the Council should have to pay to be represented in The Cherry Tree. Brought out in the discussion was the idea that the Council, by its very elective and representative nature, has a right to be represented in the yearbook free-of-charge. The Council passed a motion refusing to be in the Cherry Tree if it has to pay for such representation.

Dance Group To Interpret Stacy's Verse

by Barbara Brown
Contributing Writer

• THURSDAY EVENING marks the first major event of the Christmas season at the University with the presentation of "An Evening of Dance," by the Dance Production groups.

The program, which begins at 8:30 pm in Lisner auditorium, will be presented for one night only.

All seats are reserved, and tickets may be obtained for $1.00 and $1.25 in the book store now or at the box office on the night of the performance. Admission is free to Campus Combo holders.

On the program will be two 35 mm films featuring the outstanding American dancer Martha Graham and her company.

The highlight of the evening will be the Dance Production groups' performance of "The Gift," a Christmas ballet which is a product solely of the University community. Professor Paul H. Stacy of the English department composed the verse upon which the ballet is based. Choreography was done by students Jane Firey and Joan Talbert under the direction of Elizabeth Burtner and Gay Cheney. Music was composed by Joseph Ott.

Writer's Club

• THE WRITER'S CLUB will host Mrs. Shirley Pfautz, distinguished novelist, on Friday, Dec. 11, at 2:30 in Woodhull C.

Mrs. Pfautz is the author of, "Whipping Bag" and "See the Forest," which was published this year. "See the Forest" is the story of an out-of-bounds love affair in the world of official Washington.

It is an exciting, swift tale of self-recognition. The inside of governmental society, the public servants and their private lives of graft, office politics and the cross current of human ambitions are all depicted.

Shirley Pfautz has lived in Washington D.C. since 1940, first as the daughter of a government employee, then, as the wife of a Navy man who was transferred to civilian government work.

At Friday's meeting, author Pfautz will speak on various aspects of creative writing. This is a part of the Writer's club lecture series.

Mock Trial

• THE STUDENT COUNCIL-Student Bar Association-sponsored Mock Trial will finally materialize Wednesday night. This is indeed a satisfying thing to view.

After having come up with the idea last year, the two groups were not able to put it into action. Poor planning, apathy and grandiose schemes for a sensational Earle Stanley Gardner-type display made it a flop. Fortunately for the student body, some people with a little bit of common sense in the Law School tried to take a little bit more realistic look at what they could do to make this year's event successful.

Everything seems to indicate that it will be a success. After what appeared to be a poor start, the Student Bar Association this year has gone ahead and proved that it will do everything in its power to make it an entertaining, as well as instructive, event at the University.

Instead of trying to write out a complete case which was attempted last year, the SBA went straight to the Trial Practice Court file in the Law School. They have adapted a murder case so the suspect being tried will be a fictitious University student. They will use Law School students as counsels and undergraduate students as witnesses. This is as far as their attempts at making a theatrical performance out of the Mock Trial go.

Instead they are going to make the trial a serious thing. Only then will it be truly indicative of what they are trying to show the undergraduate body—and that is just what a law student has to learn to become a good lawyer.

The SBA have also worked for a successful trial by arranging for the law students serving as counsels to be graded as a part of their Trial Practice Court performance. This necessitated the rearranging of dockets for Trial Practice Court classes in the Law School, but they went ahead with the inconvenience anyway, hoping that by doing everything they possibly could they will make it a success.

Certainly such a worthwhile event and the planning being done for it speaks well for the Law School. One can only hope and urge that the undergraduate body take advantage of this opportunity and make it something worth the law students time and effort.

GW is a high ranking law school in the country. By our support of this event we will help to make it a showcase of legal training. Students will be entertained and may learn a little more, than they do already, of real courtroom procedure.

Potomac

• THE POTOMAC, THE University's literary magazine, will publish its second edition next week. We hope the response to this issue is as enthusiastic as was that to the first issue.

The Potomac has not only had to struggle to overcome technical problems; it has had to battle financial difficulties as well. If this issue sells out, as the first did, the financial part of the battle should be over.

The response of budding authors has been gratifying to the board of editors of the Potomac, and will be reflected by the higher quality of the works which appear in the magazine.

The Editors of the HATCHET wish the Potomac the best of luck and urge the student body to show its continued support to this valuable edition of the University's publications.

• THE HISTORY OF photography, designed by The George Eastman House, is now hanging in The George Washington University library, Dec. 6 through Dec. 31, 1959.

The exhibition divides the history of photography into three periods: the early period, 1839 to 1851, including the invention of photography; the middle period, describing the wet collodion plate; and the contemporary period, beginning in 1888 with the introduction of the Kodak camera and the manufacture of transparent flexible film.

Top 37 Seniors Picked For Who's Who Honors

• THIRTY-SEVEN UNIVERSITY seniors were named last week to membership in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Selections for the national honorary, a University equivalent of Who's Who in America, are made annually by the Student Life committee and approved by the National Who's Who administration.

The Student Life committee changed its selection process this year. In the past, seniors, who thought themselves eligible, petitioned for recognition and then the committee went through a selection process.

But, the Student Life committee re-evaluated that process. Now the committee does every bit of the selection itself in the hope that embarrassment will be saved those students who don't receive recognition. The theory, according to committee spokesmen is that the organization will more readily fit into an honorary organization on campus than it has before.

Basis

The committee based its choices on leadership in campus activities, scholarship, service to the University and potential usefulness to society.

Noticeably absent on the list is President of the Student Council Tim Mead. Mr. Mead asked the committee not to consider him because he did not feel that he could justify a position in the organization after having voiced opposition to it twice last year and a third time at the start of this semester. The committee accommodated his wish.

Top Seniors

Leading the list of students selected is Nancy Ackerman, an editor of the HATCHET, a member of Pi Delta Epsilon national journalism honorary, 1958 Homecoming queen finalist, sweetheart of Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity, secretary of Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority and member of WRGW radio station.

Iraj Amini was recognized for his work in drama production and as president of the International Students society.

Spero Aspiotis was comptroller of Homecoming this fall, assistant business manager of the 1959 Cherry Tree, vice president of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, and secretary of Gate and Key.

Lynn Baumann is a member of Mortar Board, secretary of the Pi Delta Epsilon national journalism honorary and associate editor of the 1960 Cherry Tree.

Bill Belford was recognized as a co-chairman of the 1959 Career Conference and as the outstanding member of the Interfraternity Council for 1959.

Cited

Hal Bergem was cited for his work as features editor of the HATCHET, president of the Order of Scarlet, Columbian College representative to the Student Council.

Andrea Brown is editor of the Potomac Literary magazine and a member of Mortar Board.

Dale Carlisle is president of the Student Bar Association. Nancy Davis is president of Big Sis and a member of Mortar Board. Steve Dietz is a member of the Engineer's Council and was Engineering School representative to the Student Council for 1958-59.

Busy People

Rhoda Ezrin has been news editor of the HATCHET and president of the Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority. Billy Frank has been co-chairman of Homecoming, president of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, and co-editor of the 1958-59 Student Handbook.

• BEVERLY ANDREA "Andy" Brown brings a varied background to her post as Editor of the Potomac, the University's fledgling literary magazine.

Andy was queen's editor on last year's Cherry Tree staff and business manager of the Potomac in its initial year on campus. While at Western High School, she worked as associate editor, features and news editor of the school newspaper.

A psychology major with an English minor, Andy hopes to combine the two subjects by applying for an editorial position on a psychology magazine when she graduates this spring. An alternate plan would include graduate school with a specialty in clinical psychology.

Andy has lived in Virginia, Long Island and North Carolina as well as her native Washington. Being a "Navy" junior, Andy for the first time, journeyed inland from the East Coast this summer. Summer courses at the University of Colorado gave Andy an opportunity to see part of the West. While taking courses in art, music and literature, she saw Aspen, Estes, Colorado Springs, Denver and Central City.

In Central City, a summer resort and "Ghost" mining town, Andy saw a "snaggle-toothed" 90-year-old former chorus girl who had danced for the miners when Central City was a boom town.

Andy is quite a busy girl on campus. "I'm never at home—I'm always at meetings," she laughs. She is vice-president of Kappa Kappa Gamma; secretary of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary; member of Big Sis committee; recording secretary of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary; member of Delphi, sorority women's honorary; member of Psi Chi, psychology fraternity and, newly elected member to Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honorary. She has previously been efficiency chairman of Kappa Kappa Gamma and a member of the Homecoming committee.

Red Derbies and Rotgut piano was the theme Saturday night at the Pike house as the various entitles scorned the pseudo ways of Pete Mechanick. The gay nineties blast featured the crude south-east humour of Ray Linck, Ted Collins on the banjo and Tom (Smirnoff) Dimon on piano provided some ribald music. Tiring of this after a while, the party migrated to the living room, where a crackling fire (fed by Alex Sokaris) provided the right mood for a few hi-fi albums. Joel Crenshaw chose this appropo setting to announce his engagement to Pat (Ball & Chain) Mann. Seen reveling were Stu Ross and Chi O Nancy Kinsman; Bob Corens and Pi Phi Anne Hardy; Dick Krafur and DG Peggy Skogen; Big Bill and Little Jim Farley and dates, Jackie and Dee; Hank Richmond and pinmate Polly Ann Mulville and Zam Moxie and Dora Dasus. Yesterday found many Delts trying to recover from a rather fast-paced week. Thursday night, Mr. Sweeney of the English department was the guest of our intellectuals at a highly enjoyable discussion of things in general. All those involved said that our new discussion series, organized by Tim Mead and Sandy Morrison, got off to a fine start.

Following the stupendous skits and professorial wit of the Goat Show, Delts and friends migrated to the shack on 22 st. for a swingin' open-house party. Seen among the multitudes were newly pinned couples Bob Raybold and Theta Ann Wentworth, Ed Hino and Chi O Marlene Sesso and Bill Stanley and Kappa Becky Hanzl. Highlighting the evening was a spirited and colorful song fest led by "Big Papa" Morrison and Theta Caty Cabell, "Deer-slayer" Smythe and Theta "Bobbi-Poo" Lohnes with the able assistance of "Fabian" Bachman and "Flash" Bains.

LOVELY DOTTY WILLIAMS added another jewel to her regal crown Saturday night when she was crowned Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. The Sigs and dates gathered at the Charter House on Shirley Highway. The evening was certainly "the best ever," even more than some expected. The festivities began Friday evening with a cocktail party at Libby Griffith's. Outstanding Alum Doug Buttruff held a buffet supper just preceding the dance. Post-dance activities were at chapter advisor Bob

TV OR NOT TV

The academic world has made its first tentative steps into television—a few lectures, a few seminars, a few lab demonstrations—but colleges have not yet begun to use television's vast capacity to dramatize, to amuse; to stir the senses, to unshackle the imagination. Like, for example, the following:

ANNOUNCER: Howdy, folksies. Well, it's time again for that lovable, laughable pair, Emmett Twonkey Magruder, Ph. D., and Felicia May Crimscott, M.A., in that rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101. And here they are—the team that took the "hiss" out of "history"—Emmett Twonkey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott!

DR. MAGRUDER: Howdy, folksies. A funny thing happened to me on the way to my doctorate. A mendicant approached me and said, "Excuse me, sir, will you give me 25 cents for a sandwich?" and I replied, "Perhaps I will, my good man. Let me see the sandwich."

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh, how droll, Dr. Magruder! How delicious! You're a regular Joe Penner!... But enough of badinage. Let us turn to our rollicking, roistering fun show, American History 101.

DR. MAGRUDER: Today we will dramatize the taut and tingling story of John Smith and Pocahontas. I will play Captain Smith and Miss Magruder will play Pocahontas.

ANNOUNCER: But first a message from our sponsor... Folksies, have you tried Alpine Cigarettes yet? Have you treated yourself to that fresh filtration, that subtle coolness, that extra-long, extra-efficient filter? Have you? Hmrm? ... If not, wake your tobacconist and get some Alpines at once! ... And now to our grim and gripping story. Picture, if you will, a still summer night. An Indian maid stands by a moonlit brook. Suddenly she hears a footstep behind her. She turns...

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Oh! John Smith! You-um startle-um me-um!

DR. MAGRUDER: Howdy, Pocahontas. What are you doing by the brook?

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Just washing out a few scalps. But what-um you-um want-um?

DR. MAGRUDER: I came to see the Chief.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: You-um can't-um. Chief is leaving for Chicago.

DR. MAGRUDER: On what track?

ANNOUNCER: And speaking of tracks, stay on the right track with Alpines—the track that leads straight to smoking pleasure, to fun, to frolic, to sweet content... And now back to those two gassers, Emmett Twonkey Magruder and Felicia May Crimscott.

DR. MAGRUDER: Well, folksies, that's all for today. See you next week, same time, same channel.

MISS CRIMSCOTT: Stay tuned now for "William Cullen Bryant—Girl Intern."

ANNOUNCER: And remember, folksies, there was a time when you needed to smoke two cigarettes to get what you get from one Alpine—one cigarette for light menthol, one for high filtration. Today you can get it all in a single Alpine, which means you no longer have to go around smoking two cigarettes at a time, causing your friends to snigger, and violating the fire laws.

And speaking of TV, remember to watch Max Shulman's "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis" on CBS every Tuesday night—presented by Marlboro Cigarettes, from the makers of Philip Morris and Alpine.

LUCKY STRIKE presents

Dear Dr. Frood:

DR. FROOD'S MORAL OF THE MONTH:

Make the most of your college days. (The nights will probably haunt you the rest of your life.)

Dear Dr. Frood: Is it all right to study with the TV on?

Distracted

Dear Distracted: Better not. You might miss some of the story.

Dear Dr. Frood: The Dean is trying to force me to go to classes. I think this is unfair because last season I scored 16 touchdowns, intercepted 18 passes and kicked 22 field goals in 23 attempts. What should I do?

Letter Man

Dear Letter Man: I fail to see how going to classes will help. Better practice your kicking.

Dear Dr. Frood: I am a very plain girl and I don't have much personality. All I want is a man who will love me. Why can't I find one?

Sad

Dear Sad: You're too particular.

Field-goal expert kicks about classes

(See below)

Dear Dr. Frood: I want to get married, but I don't like children. What shall I do?

Surly

Dear Surly: Marry an adult.

Dear Dr. Frood: My husband teaches at a girl's college. I know it's silly, but since I'm middle-aged and stout, I am very jealous and worry all the time. What should I do?

Plump, Tired

Dear Plump, Tired: Keep worrying.

Dear Dr. Frood: How can I keep people from borrowing my Luckies?

Pestered

Dear Pestered: Put them in a Brand X pack.

DR. FROOD ON HOW TO BE A BEATNIK

I've drawn up instructions for becoming a Beatnik: Let your hair grow until your hearing is noticeably impaired. When beard covers your tie, discard tie. Hang your shoes and socks in effigy. Sell your sink for scrap. Stock your room with cigarettes—because you won't be allowed on the street any more. (Better make 'em Luckies and enjoy your isolation!)

COLLEGE STUDENTS SMOKE MORE LUCKIES THAN ANY OTHER REGULAR!

When it comes to choosing their regular smoke, college students head right for fine tobacco. Result: Lucky Strike tops every other regular sold. Lucky's taste beats all the rest because L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

WAA To Hold Annual Buffet

"HOSTELING—A KEY to Adventure" will be the theme of the Women's Athletic Association's all sports award buffet to be held tomorrow night in Lisner Lounge from 5:30 to 9:00 pm.

Guest speakers for the evening are Bill Clague and Mary Ellen Shelton, both of whom are active in the Potomac Area Council of American Youth Hostels. Both speakers will provide short talks on camping.

Following the talks, the Four Keys, a GW singing group, will perform. The program will be closed with the presentation of athletic awards by the WAA and the ISAB.

The fall buffet is an annual event sponsored by the WAA.

Sherman Resigns

Coach Eugene "Bo" Sherman handed in his resignation as the University's football coach on November 25.

Sherman stated that the resignation was "solely my decision" and that his reasons were "personal". He said "I was very happy in my work at the University and hated to do this."

Sherman's all time record in eight years at GW was 30-33-3. He finished the 1959 season with a 1-8 record. Sherman has no plans for the future and as yet there has been no mention of a successor.

thriller to Bridgewater and a 79-78 heartbreaker to VPI.

The Colonials then journey to Richmond to meet The Citadel and Furman on the court where the Buff have chalked up their lone victory.

Friday evening the Cagers will come to grips with The Citadel which sports a 1-1 record. After defeating Presbyterian, the Bulldogs ran up against the powerful West Virginia team. The Bulldogs will face a graduation-weakened Alabama before meeting the Colonials.

Saturday night the Buff will take on the Paladins of Furman. The Purple and White are already saddled with an 0-3 record. Louisville, Georgia Tech, and West Virginia have all added Furman Sculps to their collections. West Virginia racked up the Paldins 96-63, and Georgia Tech poured it on a 91-63 lacing.

All in all, it will be a tough week of exciting basketball in which the Colonials will meet three teams that will give them no quarter.

Buff Upset Spiders; Bow To Terps, VPI

• THE COLONIALS opened the basketball season last Tuesday with an upset victory over Richmond and then lost games to Maryland and VPI.

Dick Markowitz, a junior transfer student from California, who was practically unknown at the beginning of practice, led the Buff over Richmond 89-83. Markowitz, a Helms Foundation Little All-American, scored 27 points and hauled in 12 rebounds as the Colonials won their first opening game since 1954. Ralph Kunze, Howie Bash, and soph Gar Schweichardt chipped in with 17, 13, and 11 points, but "The Mark" was the spark that shot the Buff Cagers into the lead in the second half. Markowitz tied the game at 56-56 with 13:18 left and after Kunze's rebound basket put the Colonials ahead. "The Mark" scored the next nine points to give GW a 67-58 lead. The Buff then widened the gap to 15 points and coasted to victory.

Scoring accuracy

Richmond's Butch Lambiotte took high scoring honors with 30, as Markowitz fouled out with 4:47 left. The Buff connected on 47.9 percent of their shots, while the Spiders hit for 37.5 percent. The win gave GW a 1-0 record in the Southern Conference.

Thursday night the Colonials opened at home against Maryland before 2200 screaming fans at Uline Arena. The Buff lost a heartbreaker, 64-57, after leading for most of the game.

The hero for GW was another unheralded cager, bespectacled soph Dave Lockman from Wakefield High. Lockman's 16 points kept the Buff in contention as the Terps' tight defense bottled up Bash, Kunze, and Markowitz.

Buff Stopped

Bash's long one-handers gave him 12 quick points and helped put GW in the lead early in the game. But the boys from College Park closed the gap to 2 points at halftime, 36-34. In the second half the Terps tightened their defense and held Bash, Kunze and Markowitz to a combined total of 5 points. Lockman and Big Bill Ingram combined for 16 points to keep the game close until the final minutes, when Maryland's ball control won out.

Jerry Bechtel's long one-hander broke a 57-57 deadlock with 1:30 left, and when the Buff were unable to knock the lid off their basket, the Terps widened the gap

Swim Results

• THE MED SCHOOL mermen took first place in every event but one to sweep to a convincing win in the annual intramural swimming meet.

Medmen Sam Wong and Rick Snider finished in a tie for high individual honors. Bill Hurt, also of the Med school, placed second and Chuck Coe of PhiSK was third. Coe's win in the 75-yard backstroke made him the only swimmer to crack the Medmen's monopoly on first place. SAE Bob Carroll rounded out the top four swimmers. Paced by Carroll, SAE nipped PhiSK for second place team honors by the narrow margin of two points, and DTPH captured fourth place.

to 64-57, the final score. The thrilling contest saw four Colonials and three Terps tally with double figures. Maryland's big Al Bunge led the scorers with 22 points, while Charley McNeil, playing with a gashed shooting hand, popped in 21.

Big Three Race

The victory gave Maryland the lead in the race for the "Big Three" area championship.

Saturday was a bad night at Blacksburg as the VPI Gobblers dealt the Buff their first Southern Conference defeat 75-62.

The less experienced Colonials capitalized on Gobbler mistakes early in the game, but the Gobblers settled down and romped away to an 18-point lead at halftime. GW cut the lead to 6 points early in the second half, but VPI pulled away again and held on for the win.

Moonlighters Upset; SX Clinches Crown

by Dan Solt

Med School (Fr. & Soph.) upset a highly favored Moonlighter team, 20-0. Paced by the running and passing of Joe Svaboda, the Medmen knocked the Moonlighters from the unbeaten ranks. The Moonlighter defeat throws the A-2 league crown into a two-way tie between AEPi and the Moonlighters.

Sigma Chi squeaked by a strong Med School (Jr. & Sr.) team, 13-12, to clinch the A-1 crown.

Second Quarter Lead

After a scoreless first period, Med quarterback Pete Tyreman heaved a long aerial to end Bill Hicks on the SX 17-yard line. Tyreman then found Red Colmy open at the 1-yard line. After a running play failed to gain, Tyreman hit Lynn Rowe in the end zone for the touchdown. The conversion attempt was stopped, and the Doctors led 6-0.

SX took the kickoff and marched down the field. Ron Bartell passed to John Jackson, and Jackson's shifty running put the ball on the Med 20-yard stripe. Jackson tossed to end Bill Codd at the goal line to tie the score. Jackson's end run failed to materialize on the extra point attempt.

Later in the final quarter, SX again put together a scoring drive, with the speedy Jackson racing untouched the last 18 yards. Jackson, aided by some excellent blocking, ran over for the conversion.

The determined Doctors fought back gamely. With 30 seconds remaining, Tyreman passed to Lynn Rowe who was all alone in the end zone. Tyreman hit Vince Hollis at the two-yard line, but SX Bill Codd tagged him before he could cross the goal line to preserve the win for the Chimen.

B-League Title

The Med School (Fr. & Soph.) B team captured the B-league title from PAD in a tight defensive struggle. Although unable to push over a score, the Little Docs won the game by gaining six first downs to three for the PADmen. Both defensive units rose to the test and repeatedly stopped the offensive drives of their opponents.

Colonials Take Southern Tour

• THE COLONIAL Cagers take an excursion southward this week to challenge three Southern Conference rivals in rapid succession.

Tonight the Buff make their first stop in Lexington, Virginia, to take on the Keydets of VMI. Coach "Weenie" Miller has one of the brightest court pictures ever afforded him. None of the five returning lettermen are even sure of holding their jobs on the starting five under the onslaught of sophomores.

Normie Halberstadt, who averaged 24.7 points per game as a freshman, leads last year's successful freshman contingent up to re-stock the varsity. As a high school junior he was chosen all-New York City honorable mention. He made first team All-City in his senior year. Gene Lazaroff and Weldon Eddins, who sported 23.3 and 16.2 averages on the frosh, help bolster the sophomore contingent angling for spots on the varsity. So far this season, the Keydets have dropped a 70-68

make you want to zzz-zz-zz?

If hitting the books ever makes you drowsy, NoDoz is the fast waker-upper you need. NoDoz Stay Awake Tablets deliver an accurate amount of safe stimulation to keep your mind and body alert during study and exams. How? With caffeine—the same pleasant stimulant in coffee. But non-habit-forming NoDoz is faster, handier, more reliable. Buy some—and be in good company. Millions of times a year safe NoDoz helps busy people keep alert and awake.

P.S. When you need NoDoz, it'll probably be late. Play safe. Keep a supply handy.

NÖDÖZ, the safe stay awake tablet — available everywhere

Let safe NÖDÖZ alert you
